Come learn about the work of Baptists and other Christians in Central/Eastern Europe from the perspective of a pastor who traveled a two-week mission exploration via IM. What does religious liberty look like in the former Communist countries, and how might you or your church be able to partner in their missions?

Workshop #B-2 | Exploring a Church Partnership with AMOS: Health and Hope. | Rev. Kent & Tricia Harrop
AMOS is an American Baptist supported public health ministry, serving over 70,000 people in Nicaragua. Workshop participants will 1) learn about AMOS; 2) explore how a long-term partnership model could be a blessing both to AMOS and one’s local congregation. What new ways may God be calling you and your church to serve and grow in faith?

Workshop #B-3 | Not Missionaries - Mission Partners! | The Rwanda Revs, Suzi & Jim Harriff
The Harriffs have been traveling to Rwanda for 15 years to work in collaboration with several Rwandan NGOs and ministry organizations. Their presentation will highlight the work of their Rwandan colleagues, and a model for ministry partnership.

Workshop #B-4 | One Alzheimer’s Story: Learnings for a Church Ministry | Leslie Hergert
Leslie cared for both her parents and her husband, through years of illness. She dealt with the loss from Alzheimer’s and with her father’s multiple sclerosis. Her church was an important source of support and she will draw on her own experiences to describe ways churches can support members who are caring for family through difficult illnesses.

Workshop #B-5 | Your Money Matters for Mission | Rev. Marsha Scipio
Come learn how your contributions can and do make a difference as we serve as the hands and feet of Christ domestically and internationally.

Workshop #B-6 | Hope in Diversity Workshop | Dr. Samira El Yasir
Dr. Yasir will be sharing life experiences and how her life choices have impacted how she shares mission work with the young people she leads. How can we, with boldness, courage, and compassion, do missions as God intends? Come interact and explore together what we were born to do, born to be.
