

TABCOM Connects Leaders

Strengthening Ministry Together

TABCOM connects leaders, building relationships with mentors and teachers, creating space for relevant conversations, and—most importantly—giving leaders time and space to connect with one another.

Featured ministry: In the first of what we hope will become an annual Tradition. TABCOM pastors gathered in August at Oceanwood for “Pastor Camp.” Each morning featured the presence and wisdom of Rev. Dr. Kirk Byron Jones, while afternoons offered time for reading at the beach, exploring local destinations, or simply taking a much-needed nap. Each day ended with activities designed purely for fun, giving these leaders space to rest and deepen their relationships with God and one another.

Rev. Atula Jamir shared, “Pastor camp afforded something increasingly rare in the rhythm of ministry—a welcome change of pace in favor of unhurried rest. With so little demanded of us, sustained each day by meals prepared with care, and guided by the wisdom of our camp leader, I found myself restored in a way that touched more than my body; my heart, mind, and spirit were renewed as well. Equally significant was the fellowship. Colleagues with whom I had long exchanged only passing greetings became friends, as easy, unrushed hours gave us the chance to know one another more deeply.”

Pray with us: For the well-being of leaders serving in a challenging season; for retreat and camp ministries that create space for connection; and for faith-filled friendships to grow among our pastors and lay leaders.

Give: Your offering to the Massachusetts Mission Fund helps make programs like Pastor Camp affordable and accessible to our leaders. Give to strengthen ministry to and through our leaders!

TABCOM Connects Leaders

Strengthening Ministry Together

TABCOM connects leaders, building relationships with mentors and teachers, creating space for relevant conversations, and—most importantly—giving leaders time and space to connect with one another.

Featured ministry: In the first of what we hope will become an annual Tradition. TABCOM pastors gathered in August at Oceanwood for “Pastor Camp.” Each morning featured the presence and wisdom of Rev. Dr. Kirk Byron Jones, while afternoons offered time for reading at the beach, exploring local destinations, or simply taking a much-needed nap. Each day ended with activities designed purely for fun, giving these leaders space to rest and deepen their relationships with God and one another.

Rev. Atula Jamir shared, “Pastor camp afforded something increasingly rare in the rhythm of ministry—a welcome change of pace in favor of unhurried rest. With so little demanded of us, sustained each day by meals prepared with care, and guided by the wisdom of our camp leader, I found myself restored in a way that touched more than my body; my heart, mind, and spirit were renewed as well. Equally significant was the fellowship. Colleagues with whom I had long exchanged only passing greetings became friends, as easy, unrushed hours gave us the chance to know one another more deeply.”

Pray with us: For the well-being of leaders serving in a challenging season; for retreat and camp ministries that create space for connection; and for faith-filled friendships to grow among our pastors and lay leaders.

Give: Your offering to the Massachusetts Mission Fund helps make programs like Pastor Camp affordable and accessible to our leaders. Give to strengthen ministry to and through our leaders!

